THE STAR ROUTES.

Beredell Pleads Sairty and Asks for Mercy.

Washington, 15.—In the star route case Reredell rising, said in a distinct voice, I desire to make a statement in my own behalf. Profound allence followed. The court was surprised and the defance seemed prepared for the blow. The court assenting, Beredell read the following: "After mature reflection I have determined to abandon further defence in this case and put myself at the mercy of the court and government and, if desired by counsel, to testify to all may knewledge of any facts in reference to defendants either against or for them, myself included and now in person ask leave to withdraw the plea of not gulliy and plead gullty. I feel this to be a duty I ows to myself, my family and the truth. I have reached this determination upon my own reflection and without previous consultation with my counsel; who, I believed, would not advise this course and whom I now relieve from the responsibility for it."

Ingersoll—"Well, on my part, there is no objection."

Wilshire, counsel for Reredell, said it was unexpected, but undoubtedly right of Reredell, and he withdraw from the case.

of Reredell, and he withdraw from the a case.

Judge Wylle directed the plea of guilty; entered.

Judge Walsh then related the atcry of his interview with Brady.

Washington, 16.—Reredell to-day said certain papers signed in Dorsey's name were not in his writing, and Dorsey was not in a place where he could sign it at the date named in it. A letter was read to his brother, stating the Bismarck Tongue River route would pay him or somebody $10,000 per annum. A number of blank affidavits was taken from the witness' office immediately after the verdict in the star route trials. S. W. Dorsey alone had a key to his office. The letters between himself and Dorsey were abstracted. He explained the sinuous method of bookkeeping employed by himself under the direction of S. W. Dorsey. When Dorsey asked the witness once if he had charged Brady with certain amounts, $5,000, $6,000, $7,000, the witness said he had no account against Brady. Dorsey replied, "Why, damn it, he is Wm. Smith." Wm. Smith was one of the names of the pseudo contractors. of the pseudo contractors.

Chicago, 16 .- J. W. Morse, general Chicago, 16.—J. W. Morse, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific Railway, is in the city. The company will open its Oregon Short Line to Shoshone, Idaha, which is the junction with the Wood River branch, March 1st, the distance being $21 miles from the junction of the short line with the main line at Granger. Wyoning, Stage lines the short line with the main line at Grauger, Wyoming. Stage lines into southern Idaho mining region, which now run from Kelton, U.T., and Blackfoot, Idaho, will then run from Shoshone. Work is being rushed westward toward Beise and Baker Cities. It is expected, however, the Union Pacific will stop short some fifty miles this side of Baker City, at Snake River, where connection will be made with the Uregon system of roads. Some 400 men are at work on the Wood River branch, running sixty miles, from men are at work on the Wood River branch, running sixty miles, from Shoshone to Hailey. Of this distance forzy-five miles are already graded, and the locomotive is expected at Hailey June 1st. From there several narrow gauges are projected into the mining regions of Wood River district.
